M. H. S. CONQUERS BETHANY 45 TO 6

WAS A BETTER FOOTBALL GAME THAN COUNT SHOWS

B. H. S. SCORES ON PASS

Visitors Put Up a Good Fight; Next Contest for Local Team at Savannah Friday

The Maryville High School football team beat Bethany High School at football on the State Teachers College field yesterday afternoon by a score of 45 to 6. The discrepancy in points does not show the true value of the teams, however. A good game was promised, and the game was good.

Bethany put up by far the best fight that the local high school has encountered on the local field this season. The Bethany team grew better as the game progressed and as Maryville put in substitutes to give the regulars a rest. Some startling forward passes in the third quarter netted the visitors their only touchdown, from which they failed to kick goal.

Maryville scored right off the reel, and ended the first half with four touchdowns.

The game yesterday was a return game, Maryville winning the first game of the season at Bethany by a close score. This makes four successive victories for the Maryville team. The team hopes to make the total five when it goes to Savannah next Friday for its next game.

Miller starred for Maryville, with three touchdowns, besides running a good inteference. He is a good prospect for the all-state team this season.

The game yesterday was remarkable for the few injuries. Time was taken out on only a few occasions, and no substitutions were found necessary because of injuries.

In the four games this season Maryville has rolled up a total of 155 points to its opponents' 13.

Adds Corn to Collection.

M. C. Baublitts, who lives on the E. E. Williams farm near Maryville, has brought to the office of the Chamber of Commerce two fine ears of Coulter's 90-day corn, which was planted on June 30. These will be added to the already considerable collection of Nodaway county products in the cases in that office.

Miss Edna Bonewitz, who is teaching in the St. Joseph schools, is the weekend guest of her sister, Miss Lois Bonewitz.

ASSOCIATION NOTES.

Two hundred alumni and former students had luncheon at the library Friday.

Miss Tessie Degan, president of the alumni association, acting as toastmistress, gave a short address of welcome to alumni and future members of the alumni.

Frances Holliday, historian, and Mrs. Cauffield, treasurer, asked for the help and co-operation of every member to make their work a success.

Myrtle McPherron, an alumnu, talked of the changes which take place in the appearance and character as we grow older. Francis Skaith, a former student, spoke of the memories of the "Good Old Days" and the inspiration they should be to us.

An opportunity was given for any one who wished to speak. Mr. Powers and Mr. Jennings responded.

One table, led by Mary Sewell, started the song, "Bear Cats Will Shine." Soon the entire assembly joined them.

President Richardson closed the program with words of appreciation for the large number who were there.

To live in this new age, a new ethical ideal and a new ethical standard must be developed among all professions, among all people. This was the context of Doctor Keller's address, "My Fellow Co-Workers in the Field of Human Hearts," which he delivered Friday morning. This theme is new and yet it is old.

Teachers are apt to flatter themselves that they are in the forefront of ethical development and to so far forget their relations to the outside world that they fail to get beyond their profession and do not hear the call of the blind beggar Bartimaess as he sits by the wayside begging. The teachers have been content as a profession to grovel in the mire of public disrespect, seeking a place in which to work, wearing their eyes out by facing the glitter of the light, undermining their health only to hear nothing except criticisms concerning themselves and their work. Any man or woman who devotes his life to the profession of teaching deserves the highest respect of the community.

No school, no school board and no community has the right to criticise the work of the teacher unless it knows the condition under which he works. The public must learn that the welfare of the teacher must surely make for the welfare of the children, that unless the public is educated to see that better conditions exist for the teachers the profession will continue begging by the roadside and the youth of the country cannot receive the greatlessons which they must know

TEACHERS AVOIDED PROBLEM OF UNION

DOWNED RESOLUTION AGAINST IT THOUGH MINDED THAT WAY

NEW OFFICERS CHOSEN

Egbert Jennings, King City, President; C. A. Hawkins and W. A. Powers, Nodaway Men

The most important matter to be brought before the meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers association—the resolution against unionizing the teachers—was tabled at the session this morning, although the consensus of opinion was against forming a union.

Resolutions favoring an adoption of a minimum salary law based on the preparation of teachers, such salary to continue through the calendar year; an enaction of such regulations as will raise the teaching standard and abolish all certificates of the present third grade county rank; a change of law governing the certification of teachers, requiring them to furnish evidence of their fitness before a central state board—three vital issues with educators, which are now being discussed by teachers' organizations throughout the state—were unanimously endorsed and adopted by the association.

Four clauses discouraging the affiliation of teachers with the American Federation of Labor were struck out of the resolutions offered. This action was taken because professionally the interests of the association would not be advanced, and as a body the teachers did not want to go on record as standing for or against the federation.

The four clauses elminated were:

Whereas, Many of the teachers of this state have been approached by representatives of the American Federation of Labor requesting that various organizations of teachers affiliate with that organization,

Whereas, we as members of the N. W. M. T. Association are not opposed to the American Federation of Labor as an organization for the betterment of conditions for those employed by private individuals or corporations,

Whereas, We, as members of the N. W. M. T. A. feel that our best interests and the interests of the public which employs us will not be advanced by an affiliation with the American Federation of Labor,

Be it Resolved, That we, as members of the N. W. M. T. A. go on record as opposed to any organization of Missouri teachers affiliating with the American Federation of Labor.

Egbert Jennings, superintendent of schools at King City was elected president of the association for the coming year, succeeding A. Boyd of Albany, who has been head for the past two years.

The other officers elected were Fred Roach, superintendent of Buchanan county, first, J. A. Higdon of Tarkio, second, and Miss Hallie Burch, superintendent of Daviess county, third vice presidents; C. A. Hawkins, Maryville, secretary; E. O. Harvey, Chula, treasurer. The executive committee elected was W. A. Powers, superintendent of the Harmony consolidated district, Nodaway county, for a three year period; S. W. Skelton, New Point, two year period; and J. C. Godbey, Savannah, one year period. This committee also includes the president and secretary.

The 1920 meeting of the association will be held in Maryville, November 4, 5 and 6. The date is set two weeks later than the established date heretofore in order to allow the teachers to collect their second month's salary, thereby relieving themselves of a possible financial embarrassment in attending the meeting.

J. A. McMillan, Library Officer.

James Adelbert McMillen, a former Pickering boy and a graduate of the Maryville high school, was elected treasurer of the Missouri Library Association at their meeting in Kansas City this week. Mr. McMillen is now librarian of Washington University of St. Louis.

RAVENWOOD BOY DIES IN ACCIDENT

ELMER STOCKSTILL, 17, SHOT BY GUN COMPANION HELD

THOUGHT IT UNLOADED

Raymond Wyer Exonerated in Verdict of Coroner's Jury; Victim Died in Five Minutes

Elmer Stockstill, 17 years old, was killed this morning between 8 and 9 o'clock at the Bogue farm, two miles south of Ravenwood, when he was accidentally shot by his companion, Raymond Wyer, who is 14 years old. The boys had spent the night in a tenant house on the farm and this morning were playing with guns. The one Wyer had was loaded, and the shot took effect in Stockstill's neck, death occurring in about five minutes. Wyer did not know the gun was loaded.

Coroner F. C. Wallis held the inquest this morning and the jury brought in the following verdict:

"We, the jury in the inquest over the dead body of Elmer Stockstill, find that he came to his death by gunshot wound by Raymond Wyer by accident."

The coroner's jury was composed of Everett Houchens, Ezra McMullen, Perry David, E. D. Lawson, C. A. Shunk and Ed Burch

Young Stockstill was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stockstill. Wyer is the son of A. B. Wyer.

No one was at the house at the time of the accident, and Wyer went at once for help.

The trial of the divorce suit of William J. Wagner vs. Sarah Ellen Wagner was resumed in circuit court this morning before J. H. Sayler as special judge, after a vacation of several days to obtain additional testimony.

CABINET AGREES ON PLAN TO MEET THE COAL STRIKE

Bulletin.

Washington, Oct. 25.—President Wilson's cabinet today agreed on a definite policy for meeting the threatened strike of the soft coal miners.

Washington, Oct. 25.—With the nation face to face with a nation-wide coal strike, a hurried call went out today for a special meeting of the cabinet. The rejection by the miners of the president's plea for arbitration of the controversy between the miners and operators disposed of all hopes of averting the strike through negotiations. Quick action by the government today is the only hope of keeping the miners at work.

RIFLE CLEARMONT BANK AND STORES

ROBBERS CUT WIRES, ISOLATE TOWN WHILE WORKING

R. R. STATION ENTERED

Bonds and War Savings Stamps Most of Loot; Little Money Gone; Safe Was Not Opened

Clearmont was the scene of several robberies last night when the Jackson Bank of that town, the Matlock Mercantile store, Pratt & Son hardware store and the railway station were broken into and money, liberty bonds, war savings stamps and other articles taken. The robbers cut the telephone cable and also broke the telegraph instruments at the station so that it is impossible to get in communication with that town today.

Entrance to the bank was gained through the side door, and an opening in the vault was made. The vault door was blown off, and the indications were that it was from the inside. The parties took liberty bonds and war savings stamps from deposit boxes, but no money. The money safe in the vault was not opened by the robbers. In the bank this morning was found an axe, a hatchet and a knife that the robbers took from the Pruitt store and with which they made an opening into the valut. The bank, upto late this afternoon, did not know how many bonds had been taken, but no registered bonds were stolen.

At the Matlock store about $75 in money and war savigs stamps were taken. The safe in this store, it is said, was not locked. At the Pruitt & Son hardware store, three shotguns were stolen, in addition to the axe, hatchet and knife. At the station, in addition to the breaking of the telegraph instruments, $2.34 was taken from the cash drawer.

The report of the explosion was heard by two or three parties, but they thought it was an auto casing. It is thought it was about 2 o'clock this morning.

Bloodhounds from Beatrice, Neb., were sent for and are expected late this afternoon. Prosecuting Attorney McCaffrey and Deputy Sheriff Romasser are in Clearmont today investigating the robberies. Up to a late hour no clues have been found.

ASSOCIATION NOTES.

to become efficient citizens .

"The Educational Situation As It Is" was the title of the address given by President J. A. Thompson of Tarkio College, Tarkio, Mo., Friday morning. We are standing at a time when we are facing great changes. None of us realize the number of illiterates in the United States today — five and one-half million. The appalling figures as disclosed by the draft show that 750,000 young men between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one were unable to read or write, out of a total number of 2,900,000 registered. This is a great fact now facing us.

Formerly education was left to the communities, therefore, the poorer districts, even if they had been taxed to the highest capacity under the law could not have established a high school. Now there is a tendency to to nationalize education. At preesnt the Bureau of Education is a department under the secretary of the interior, and at no time has it ever received more than $480,000 per year for its work.

There is a bill pending now to set aside $100,000,000 for education to establish a department of education with a secretary on par with the secretary of labor or of commerce.

The outstanding conditions as they are now are much poorer than conditions in England, France or Germany. We must do something. We must have more teachers, better prepared and also an increase in facilities for education.

The music for the session was songs by the college, a quartette and a duet by Mrs. F. P. Robinson and Dr. G. S. Cox.

The Association of Collegiate Alumni gave a luncheon in honor of Doctor Loeb and Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford at the Bainum Hotel at 6 o'clock Friday evening. President Richardson was also a guest. After dinner Doctor Loeb gave a short talk on the relation ship of the A. C. A. to the college. Mrs. Bradford talked on the relation of the association to the college girl. The members of the association present were: Misses Brunner, Miller, Arnett, Anthony, DeLuce, Winn, Hopkins, Helwig, Dow, Hawkins, Hogan, Pierce, Corwin, Eckles and McPherron.

At the session for the elementary grade teachers Friday afternoon, Dr. F. R. Anthony of Maryville discussed "Medical Inspection In a Small School." The need for teachers trained in principles of health control was emphasized. An interesting discussion followed this talk.

Mr. Egbert Jennings, superintendent of the King City school ,spoke on "Americanizing Missouri School Children." His main points were: establishment of a national department of education; socializing school work and vitalizing the curriculum.

"The Value of the Junior High School to Upper Grades" was the subject of an interesting address by G. W. Diemer, superintendent of schools, Excelsior Springs. An increase of interest, opportunity for vocational training, specialized teachers and better equipment were some of the arguments for the junior high school.

G. W. Diemer of Excelsior Springs was elected chairman and Miss Opal Keys, secretary of the elementary department for the coming year.

At the meeting of the high school department, Arthur S. Cline of the Cline Teachers Agency at Columbia, in his report on high school teachers' salaries, brought out some facts learned by a recent investigation on the subject.

The recommendations committee which have to do with placing teachers of each state college and the University of Missouri were asked the following questions:

(1) Do you believe many teachers are leaving Missouri for better salaries paid in other states? Their replies showed that from 15 to 31 per cent were leaving.

(2) If so, are the more highly qualified leaving? The answer was yes.

(3) Which states are attracting teachers from your section of the state, and about what percentage of increase do they offer above Missouri salaries? Iowa is attracting the greatest number, while Oklahoma runs a close second. Kansas, Nebraska, Illinois and Arkansas are taking our teachers.

Richard Powell, superintendent of Bethany schools, gave the following possible remedies for the situation:

(1) Education in such public affairs as finance and taxation.

(2) Abolish the spirit of unprofessionalism.

(3) Decrease inefficiency.

(4) Stop underbidding.

(5) Eliminate extravagance on the part of administration and supervisory people in buying supplies.

(6) Avoid tax dodging.

At the close of the session J. A. Higdon of Tarkio was elected chairman and Fred Keller of Chula was elected secretary for next year.

President Richardson, as chairman of the Rural Teachers Association, opened the session Friday afternoon with a short business meeting. A chairman and secretary for the rural section were elected for next year. Superintendent Cooper, as chairman, and Superintendent Duncan as secretary.

Mr. Gilpin of St. Joseph gave an interesting talk on the work in the rural schools.

President Richardson then explained the rotation plan and how to use it. The best short course will be given next summer, the second week of July. Besides the agricultural exhibits there will be an exhibit of house conveniences. Every teacher should take advantage of this and attend this course.

Miss Blevins of Holt county and some of her pupils gave an exhibit of charts pertaining to agriculture, and showed an exhibit of insects they had collected.

Mrs. Mays of Atchison county spoke of the interest of the community in the school work.

Mr. Skelton of New Point, a consolidated district, told of the situation of his school.

The cafeteria, under the management of the Y. W. girls, has been doing a good business. They have served a large crowd both days. The girls took in $30 Thursday noon and $64 Friday noon. Their menu both days consisted of beans, salad, fruit, sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee.

BLAMES FAULTS OF TAXATION FOR POOR PAY TO TEACHERS

Dean Isidor Loeb of M. U. a Speaker Last Night; Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford Says Test Is Now

Last evening in the State Teachers College auditorium, Dean Isidor Loeb of the University of Missouri, who is an authority on government, spoke to a large audience on the subject of taxation in Missouri. He may be a highbrow college professor, but these statements were based on rock bottom.

There are two fundamentals in taxation; it must product adequate revenue and it must distribute the tax equitably, equally and according to the needs of the people.

In Missouri, almost the only source of revenue is from the general property tax system, which assesses the value of all kinds ofproperty. Only fifteen percent can be levied for state purposes, and one-third of that is set aside for schools.

We have all the laws we need and would have adequate revenue were they enforced, but our system of administration is at fault. It is not the fault of the officials, but they are not qualified. The county assessor does not know the requirements of the law and is not allowed to hold the office long enough to use the knowledge he acquires, so he just follows the lead of his predecessor. Besides the assessor does not want to require his count yto pay more than the neighboring county. The members of the state board of equalization already have a man-size job, so cannot investigate and judge the value of property in the counties.

Our system of taxation has led to poorly paid school teachers, and, as a result, all but the incompetents and a few who are too loyal to leave are going to other states. The teachers are not to blame and we should wake up to the fact that every child is entitled to an equal chance as far as education is concerned.

Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford, state superintendent of schools of Colorado, raised the question: "Are we living up to our good habits of thrift, self-denial and sacrifice learned in war times?" The severest test of our civilization was not in 1917, but is in 1919-20.

Colleges formerly threw off the respcnsibility for the inability of their students. We are just now beginning to see a perfect body is the servant of the mind, and the mind is the servant of the soul. Schools are the laboratory of good citizenship and are necessary for the perpetuity of the republic. Education is not only for the small group at the top, but for all. Revolution should change to evolution and will do so when you have educated citizens.

Do not leave the profession because of poor pay. Let it not be said you failed to do your duty. One is not better than another when liberty and civilization are to be saved. Since teachers are the apostles of liberty and democracy, they must stick to their jobs.

The musical numbers of the evening were two solos by Miss Margaret James of the college faculty and a violin solo by Miss Ruth Hankins of th Conservatory.

HARRY H. ALLEN, ABSTRACTOR, IS DEAD; FUNERAL TOMORROW

Had Suffered From Heart Trouble for Some Time; Came Here From Trenton In 1902

Harry H. Allen, 47 years old, abstractor of the Farmers Trust Company, died last night at 8:30 o'clock at his home on East Third street. He had been suffering from heart trouble for several months, but was able to be at his work until last Tuesday, since which time his condition had been serious.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the family residence, conducted by Dr. S. A. Coile of the Presbyterian church. Burial will be in Miriam cemetery.

Mr. Allen was born in Memphis, Mo., December 9, 1871. He came to Maryville from Trenton in 1902 and has been associated with the Farmers Trust Company off and on since then. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Dorothy, his father, S. A. Allen of Trenton, and four brothers, W. H. Allen of this city, Ed W. Allen of Trenton, E. M. Allen of Havre, Mont. and C. A. Allen of San Luis Obispo, Calif.

Meeting For Men Only.

All men of the Christian church Sunday school will assemble in the Electric theatre building in the morning at 9 o'clock. All men of the community who do not attend some other school are cordially invited to join in this service. It is believed that there will be from 200 to 300 men in this class. Many who do not attend Sunday school regularly have promised to be present. The committees are anxious to make this the largest class of men that ever assembled for Bible study in the history of our city. The meeting will be called at 9 a. m. sharp. With the clocks moved back all men can meet by that time. The Christian church orchestra will play. Mrs. F. P. Robinson will sing some selections and Rev. Snodgrass, pastor, will deliver an address upon the subject, "The Man of Vision." With a strong program and the inspiration of men's meetings it is believed that this will be one of the greatest services ever held in the city.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles T. Bell are spending the week-end in Kansas City, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Kuhn.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Evans of Denver, Colo., arrived in Maryville Wednesday night for a few days visit. Mr. Evans is special agent for the Union Pacific. He was formerly sheriff of Nodaway county.

FORMER ARMY OFFICER TO WORK FOR TRUST COMPANY

Major and Mrs. Clifford Powell New Maryville Citizens; Is With Gillam-Jackson Firm

Maryville has acquired two new citizens in the persons of Major Clifford Powell and his wife. Major Powell becomes identified with and will give all of his time to the business of the Gillam-Jackson Loan & Trust Company. Prior to the war, he was engaged in the practice of law in Iowa, being a graduate of the Iowa State Law school. He was among the first to go to France going over with the famous "Rainbow Division" and being in the thick of the early fighting with that division. He became a Major and was entrusted with very important duites. Mr. Powell was reared on a farm in southwest Iowa and is one of a prominent farming and banking family of Red Oak. He comes, therefore, well prepared for his important work.

The addition of Mr. Powell to the working force of the Gillam-Jackson Loan & Trust Company has led us into a very interesting disclosure of the growth and importance of this Company The Gillam-Jackson Loan & Trust Company was organized a little over six years ago and affiliated with the First National Bank. Its President, who was formerly the president of the Gillam, Bellows & Pierce Loan Company, brought to it a considerable business at the start and the growth of its business has been remarkable. It immediately became a factor in the Farm Loan business of all Northwest Missouri. Its chief source of cheap eastern money has always ben the National Life Insurance Company of Montpelier, Vermont, one of the large and growing old line eastern life insurance companies. Something over three years ago this Insurance Company offered to transfer to the Gillam-Jackson Loan & Trust Company the control, as correspondents, of a very considerable business in northeast Kansas and to add that territory to the Trust Company's loan field. To handle this business and additional territory to the best advantage, the Central States Mortgage Company was organized and located in St. Joseph. This summer the National Life Insurance Company, which has a very considerable business in southwest Iowa, offered to add that territory to the Loan & Trust Company's farm loan field, and it is the addition of this territory which brings about the addition of Mr. Powell to the working force at the Loan & Trust Company, and the fact is brought out that Maryville has a trust company, the farm loan business of which includes northwest Missouri, northeast Kansas and southwest Iowa. It also discloses the fact that in the conduct of such business, seventeen persons are employed—twelve with the Maryville office and five with the St. Joseph office. This force of seventeen does not include those who gave their time to the banking business with which the Loan & Trust Company is affiliated, which, as before stated, is the First National Bank, in the conduct of which business a large force is also employed. The combined captital, surplus and undivided profits of these banks and Loan & Trust Companies is over $270,000.00, the largest amount of capital under one control used in the conduct of a banking and farm loan buiness in all northwest Missouri, outside of St. Joseph. These people have been very modest in going much into print about the remarkable growth and expansion of their business and it will doubtless be a matter of much surprise to the public generally, to learn of this. Mac-Betty Absorption Plant, at Osage, Okla., recently acquired by Indian Gasoline Company, of Tulsa. Capacity, 1,800 gallons raw gasoline daily, and being increased to 3,000 gallons. View shows pump house, vertical absorbers, stills, condensing and cooling apparatus.

Gasoline Manufacture is Profitable

THE casinghead or natural gas gasoline industry is a manufacturing proposition, utilizing the gas, which in the past has been, and in many places still is, a waste product. This is converted into a commodity (gasoline) of daily use throughout the world, the supply of which is less than the demand.

The industry of extracting gasoline from natural gas has been in existence for only a decade and yet has reached tremendous proportions, and has established itself as a vital factor in the production of the total volume of gasoline in the United States.

12% Cumulative, Participating Preferred Stock Par Value $10

Capital Stock (Authorized). $600,000 12% Culumative and Participating Preferred Stock par value $10. Regular Preferred dividend payable 1% per month. 6,000 shares of Common Stock—no par value, fully paid and non-assessable.

Operations. Plant No. 1 (MacBetty) located near Osage, Okla., is now operating with a capacity of 1,800 gallons per day and will be increased to 3,000 gallons daily. Earning in excess of the Preferred dividend requirements. Plant No. 2, located near Okmulgee, Oklahoma, should be in full operation early in November, thereby more than doubling the earnings. A total of four plants are expected to be completed by March 1, 1920. Engineers advise that with the completion of all plants, which can be fully supplied with casinghead gas by the company's present contracts, the earnings should be 5 to 6 times the amount required for the fixed dividend—12% on the Preferred—and possibly will earn an excess of 35% upon each class of stock.

Management. The management is composed of men who are experienced, capable and reliable, including Grant C. Stebbins, W. R. Lindsay, and Ray S. Fellows, all of Tulsa.

Purpose of Issue. To provide funds for increasing the capacity of plant No. 1, the completion of plant No. 2, and the construction of the two additional plants and other capital purposes.

Voting Power. The 60,000 shares of Preferred and the 6,000 shares of Common Stock, each has 50% of the voting power, except that the Preferred may not vote for election of directors. However, upon failure to pay six monthly dividends on the Preferred during any one year, the Preferred shall have full and complete voting power to the exclusion of the Common, until such arrearages are fully earned and paid.

Nature of an Industrial Bond. The company has no funded debt and the consent of the holders of a majority of the Preferred Stock outstanding must be obtained before any property of the corporation can be mortgaged or otherwise incumbered, the Common Stock increased, or any stock prior to or of a parity with the first Preferred Stock issued or any obligation having a maturity of more than three years from the date thereof created.

Participating. Preferred Stock is preferred both as to dividends and assets, receiving dividends to the amount of 12% payable at the rate of 1% monthly before anything can be paid on the Common. In all earnings in excess of 12% to both classes of stock, the Preferred Stock will share equally with the Common Stock.

Raw Materials. The company has no contracts for gas in fields that are over fifty per cent developed at the present time, and where there is not now more than sufficient gas for requirements of plants. Most of the gas is derived from two sands, known as the Peru and the Bartlesville sands, both of which are known to have a life of from 15 to 20 years for the production of oil, and gas continues to flow long after oil has ceased. A peculiar but very significant fact connected with the production of casing-head gas is that this increases in richness as the wells become older at the rate of approximately 25% a year. The petroleum industry is at present and has been for some time using reserve stocks, as there is today less production than consumption and the demand for gasoline is increasing faster than production.

We Recommend the Preferred Shares of the Indian Gasoline Company as possessing the rare combination of strong protective provisions and attractive speculative possibilities incident to the participating feature.
